TAKING CARE OF YOU & YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

Banff Sport Medicine respects your confidentiality and privacy.

When you receive health services from us, we will collect individually identifying health information in accordance with Health Information Act - HIA (20).

We will collect this health information directly from you, except in the limited circumstances where we are authorized under HIA (22(2)) to indirectly collect such information.

Our primary purpose in collecting your health information is to:

- Provide diagnostic, treatment and care services to you
- Determine or verify your eligibility for health services
- Bill the provincial health care insurance plans for our services

Our Clinic will only collect, use and disclose your health information in accordance with the provisions of HIA.

For more information, please discuss with our Privacy Officer, Dr. Greg Buchko
